Foreword

Welcome to the Musicea Arts and Culture Council

Musicea Arts and Culture Council is a non-profit international educational institution incorporated as a Section 8 Company of the Indian Companies Act, 2013. The primary objective of incorporation is to prepare syllabi, offer qualifications, assist in careers and jobs, recognise, award and honour achievements and promote young candidates in music, dance, theatre, language, arts and sports. Musicea Arts and Culture Council is a college of national and international educators sharing the dream of creating a world-class international institution based in India to provide opportunities, solutions and recognition to both students and teachers.

Musicea Arts and Culture Council offer different international graded levels of graded syllabi and assessment. Several innovative and path-breaking measures implemented by the college council make it inclusive, holistic, and apt for 21st-century music education. The pioneering initiatives are transforming the lives of thousands of educators and students. Musicea Arts and Culture Council initiatives play an active role in developing a nation by assisting millions of aspiring students and teachers. Several initiatives are in place to protect, serve, and empower the teachers and students. Member teachers and students receive a series of direct benefits, honour and advantages from the Musicea Arts and Culture Council. Two of the many pioneering initiatives are students receive Scholarships and teachers receive Pension Benefit Schemes.

Musicea Arts and Culture Council is also committed to preserving, nurturing, and promoting the rich heritage and traditions of Indian and World Music and the Arts. The syllabi are refreshing and educational. All aspects of the syllabi are in sequential order concerning the academic merit underlying each requirement. The selection of pieces and songs is a meticulous and progressive process. Breaking from the narrow-based idea of a fixed book for examination, Musicea Arts and Culture Council broadens the scope of learning and performing by prescribing a suggestive list of all-time favourite pieces and songs. Education is beyond the scope of one book and format. 21st-century learning demands a fun-filled, open and broad-spectrum far beyond forced education. The Free Choice option allows a candidate to perform pre-approved self-composition or arrangement. Modern subjects encourage a candidate to embellish and improvise. The Musicianship is a pioneering inclusion that makes the examination more interesting. Musicea Arts and Culture Council have been at the forefront in preserving, nurturing and promoting music and the arts.

Musicea Arts and Culture Council Qualification

Musicea Arts and Culture Council qualifications are comprehensive and cater for those interested academically or as a performer. The lists contain works ranging from early times to up-to-date contemporary examples, plus own choice options.

All works are carefully selected and sequentially graded. Teachers preparing students for Musicea Arts and Culture Council qualifications will have a clear and detailed outline to develop their lessons. Musicea Arts and Culture Council qualification make provision for different abilities and provide a goal for candidates. Examination reports reflect a reliable assessment of progress and, by comments and marks, assist individual development. However, there are many ways to improve the skills and, candidates should look beyond the scope of only assessment-related studies.

In each Musicea syllabus, teachers will find the requisites of a training system for their students through the different Levels and Grades. The aim is to encourage personal development in music and dance in each individual. It is the wish of the Musicea to support teachers and their students in developing their skills, acquisition of knowledge and enhanced self-confidence according to age and experience, not to discourage and set impossible or unrealistic standards.

The first staff illustrates intervals starting on C4: minor 2nd (C4 to B3), major 2nd (C4 to D4), minor 3rd (C4 to E3), and major 3rd (C4 to E4). The second staff illustrates intervals starting on A3: minor 6th (A3 to F4), major 6th (A3 to F#4), minor 7th (A3 to G#4), and major 7th (A3 to G#4).

Kindly note:

All examples of major are shown in C major.

All examples of minor are shown in A minor.

Musicianship

Test 1. Clapping:

The examiner will display a four bar rhythm in simple or compound time, and the candidate is expected to slowly clap the rhythm with a steady pulse. In addition to the rhythmic patterns of the previous grades, triplets and tied notes may be added. For example:

Test 2. Aural Intervals:

The examiner will play two notes, first separately and then together. The candidate is expected to recognize whether the interval is a major second, major or minor third, perfect fourth, perfect fifth, major sixth, major seventh or perfect octave. The examiner will ask two set of aural intervals. For example:

Test 3. Chords:

The examiner will play a chord twice, and the candidate is expected to tell the examiner whether it is major, minor or diminished. For example:

Test 4. Echo Clap:

The examiner will clap a short rhythm (four bars) in simple time, and the candidate is expected to clap the rhythm pattern back to the examiner. For example:

Test 5. Sight Singing:

The examiner will give half a minute to look at a passage (four bars) in the keys of C major, F major, D major, or A major. In that time, the candidate may sing parts of the passage. After that, the examiner will ask to sing the passage. For example:

Study

A candidate may choose an unaccompanied folk song. The duration of the song should not exceed three minutes and thirty seconds.

A candidate may select a technically challenging etude, exercise, piece, or song as Study. The length (the number of bars) of the Study will be equal, a little more but no less than the pieces or songs performed. As a general guideline, the standard of a Study will be that of a piece or song one level or a grade higher. A candidate may select the Study from the prescribed list of pieces or songs one level or a grade higher.

Musical Knowledge

The examiner will ask the candidate questions on the following aspects from the list of performed songs (excluding study list, if any).

The examiner will ask four questions on the following aspects. The questions include knowledge of the previous grades. The following are add-ons.

- Recognition of chords I, IV, V in the tonic key
- Recognition of perfect and plagal cadence
- Knowledge of other works by the lyricist, composer, and artist
- Knowledge about the period, rhythm and style of the song

For example:

Question: Name the key of the first song.

Example answer: C major.

Question: Name the chords I, IV and V of C major.

Example answer: Chord I is C, chord IV is F and chord V is G.

Question: On which cadence the second song ended?

Example answer: Perfect cadence.

Question: Tell the style and some exclusive feature of the third song.

Example answer: Thriller is a mix of post-disco and funk. The music and lyrics evoke horror films, with sound effects such as thunder, footsteps and wind. It ends with a spoken-word sequence performed by horror actor Vincent Price.
